FUKUSHIMA: IMPLICATIONS FOR THE UK'S NUCLEAR PROGRAMME

Institution of
MECHANICAL
ENGINEERS

How do we think about nuclear safety and how do we incorporate regulation targets into new-build designs, post-Fukushima?

Join John Large FIMechE FRSA, nuclear specialist and consulting engineer, as he reviews the catastrophic events at Fukushima and evaluates whether the UK's nuclear risk and safety assessments can ensure that a similar event cannot happen here.

Refreshments from 6pm for a 6.30 start.
Booking essential!
